

Person-in-Charge (PIC) Award Certification Terms and Conditions

The below terms and conditions apply to certified Persons-in-Charge ('The Recipient'):

1. The Recipient's Responsibilities

1.1. At all times The Recipient shall:

- Not do anything that would negatively impact the reputation of the award certification or TSI,
- Not make any claim about the award certification that is not accurate,
- Not use the award certificate in a misleading manner,
- Not reproduce the award certificate except for personal records,
- Not attempt to alter the award certificate in any way,
- Discontinue all usage of the award certificate and cease any claims with regards to certified status upon suspension or withdrawal of certification status by TSI,
- Return the award certificate to TSI upon request,
- Undertake a refresher evaluation within three (3) years of the initial certification date as shown on the award certificate (following a refresher training course delivered by an approved trainer), and,
- Keep confidential all content of the examination and not conduct any fraudulent activity during or after the examination.

1.2. Failure to adhere to the responsibilities shown in Section 1.1 shall result in a suspension of certification.

1.3. Subject to compliance with the above requirements, certification shall last for five (5) years.